Dear Student:

Thank you for your interest in the Randolph County Democratic Women 2020 Scholarship competition.

Students of any political affiliation are welcome to apply.

In order for us to consider you for this competition, you must submit the following:

1. A completed application,
2. An essay based on the enclosed assignment,
3. A letter of reference from an educator or from a member of the community with first hand knowledge of your civic involvement and character.

Applicants will be evaluated based on (1) political and elections involvement, (2) other volunteer and civic involvement, (3) other public engagement or employment, and (4) the quality of the essay.

Completed applications must be received at the following address by April 15, 2021:
